

000120ISLAMIC CULTURE*3 hours

This course deals with the rooting of the concept of culture and the problem of the term and the concept of Islamic culture and its location among the world cultures. It also deals with the sources of Islamic culture, its tributaries, its achievements and its characteristics. It also deals with the fields of Islamic culture, faith, practical, behavioral and advocacy. The life of Muslims today and the future of culture in light of contemporary globalization, Islam's position on extremism, extremism and the fight against terrorism, and the rejection of hate speech.