

Course Name: Modern Trends in Educational Training.

Course No. : (701780).

Credit Hours: (3) Hours.

Course Description:

This course deals with contemporary trends in preparing, qualifying and training principals, educational leaders and supervisors working in educational institutions, and the relationship between educational development, administrative development and administrative training as an investment process to achieve high institutional effectiveness. In each style, and its techniques in order to provide leaders, managers and educational supervisors with the necessary information, knowledge, trends and skills in planning, organizing, directing, coordinating, controlling, communicating and making decisions, proposing programs and building practical strategies in educational training for workers in the educational field.