Course Name: Information Technology in Education.

Course No. : (704742).

Credit Hours: (3) Hours.

Course Description:

This course aims to introduce students to the importance of using information and communication technology in education, how to design a computerized class and make use of the Internet and e-mail, introducing general concepts about information and communication technology, networks and modern methods of computerized class management, how to deal with talented students, and how to use the spreadsheet program in Education and the use of the FRONTPAGE program in designing websites, the use of the POWERPOINT program in the preparation of a computerized class (multimedia), the uses of technology in teaching (science, mathematics, languages and humanities), the use of e-mail in education, and the use of the Internet as a source of information and research.